

Interpreting Biofacts Worksheet – Example

CARTS/BAGS	HOW TO START THE CONVERSATION Ask questions	FOSTER AN INTERACTIVE CONVERSATION WITH THE VISITOR	INSPIRE THE VISITOR TO WANT TO KNOW MORE WHAT IS THE GOAL?
	THE HOOK	THE MEAT	THE MESSAGE
Giraffe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Do you know whose skull this is? * Have you ever touched a giraffe? * What do you have in common with this animal's skull? How do we look different? *Where do you think this animal lives? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Why does he need so many molars? Do his teeth give you any clues as to what the giraffe eats? *Do you think the giraffe's height is an advantage or a disadvantage? Does the giraffe's skull provide you with any hints as to whether the giraffe is a predator or a prey animal? What features would you look at to make this determination? *What happens to the giraffe when the trees are cut down to accommodate farming or trees are impacted by climate change? If the giraffes ceased to exist how might that effect the environment?	Understand the uniqueness of giraffe adaptations and the role giraffe plays in the environment Understand giraffe vulnerability Giraffes are impacted by loss of habitat and climate change. Learn about giraffe conservation measures

Interpreting Biofacts Worksheet

CARTS/BAGS	HOW TO START THE CONVERSATION Ask questions.	FOSTER AN INTERACTIVE CONVERSATION WITH THE VISITOR	INSPIRE THE VISITOR TO WANT TO KNOW MORE WHAT IS THE GOAL?
	THE HOOK	THE MEAT	THE MESSAGE